

Magnetic Circular Dichroism Spectrometer

The Jasco MCD spectrometer allows the measurement of both optical transmission and photoluminescence for the UV-vis spectral domain. The measurements can be performed in a magnetic field of 1.4 T and to temperatures down to liquid nitrogen by means of a cryostat.